Please save our date. Formal invitation to follow.

Matt and Sarah met in 2006 while they were both studying at UNC-Wilmington. Last May, by the gardens of an old church in Siena, Italy, Matt asked Sarah to marry him. Ever since, they've been looking forward to saying their vows, celebrating with their family and friends, and getting started on "forever."

More details to come. For now, feel free to explore their wedding website at <http://glova-mckone.ourwedding.com>.
